

MARTYN HILL

Managing Director – Outback Safety

Martyn Hill is Senior Occupational Health & Safety, Quality and Environmental Consultant and Coach with over 16 years' experience developing and implementing strategy, auditing, advising and contributing to improved safety outcomes across high risk complex organisations including construction, contractors, utilities, gas transmission pipelines and mechanical, electronic, electrical workshops, heavy industrial transport facilities and frontline military.

Martyn is driven by knowledge to provide practical results for your organisation with high post graduate qualifications and yet down to earth approach to safety.

Qualifications & memberships

- Masters in Human Factors and Safety Management Systems, University of SA (1 unit left to completion)
- Post Graduate Diploma of OH&S Management, University of SA
- Post Graduate Certificate of OH&S Management, University of SA
- Lead auditor of integrated managements systems (OHS, Quality and Environment)
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment, Charles Darwin University
- Northern Territory's first and only Chartered Fellow of the Safety Institute of Australia (peak grading)
- President of the NT branch of the Safety Institute of Australia;
- Chair of the NT WHS Conference organising committee

Mobile: 0412 820 942

PO Box 40186

Casuarina NT 0810

www.outbacksafety.com.au

Martyn.Hill@outbacksafety.com.au

Key areas of expertise

- WHS and Quality Auditing
- Triple Certification
- Operational Risk Management
- WHS Management
- Strategic development
- Drafting WHS Manuals and Procedures
- Training Management
- Emergency Incident management and Investigation

About Outback Safety

Progressive and innovative advisory service helping you to protect your business from fines, losses, accidents and bad publicity and to:

achieve Work Health and Safety compliance achieve triple certification

manage operational risks

get accreditation in Work Health and Safety, Quality and Environment

Our company is new, but the Director, Martyn Hill, is an established work health and safety consultant who brings insight and experience, the product of combination of years of study, contribution to the profession through Safety Institute of Australia and practical experience of more than 16 years.

